

INFORMATION LETTER

We would like to inform you that on May 10, 2021, an online scientific-practical conference "Improving the quality of education and training in the field of physical culture" will be held at the Faculty of Physical Culture of Urgench State University.

The purpose of the conference:

In the educational process of teachers, leading scientists, young researchers, masters, and students working in the universities of our country and in the field of physical culture and sports to get acquainted and discuss the latest achievements of their research on innovative technologies and prospects for their development. The conference is open to professors and doctoral students of higher education institutions, independent researchers, masters, and students with scientific articles.

The conference will be held in the following areas:

1. Modern innovative technologies to improve the quality of physical culture education and training in higher education;
2. Pedagogical bases of scientific organization of physical education lessons and sports lessons in general secondary schools;
3. Issues of improving the quality of physical education in preschool education;
4. Current issues in the development of children's sports and achieving high sports results.

Requirements for conference materials:

Materials up to 4 pages, 1.5 spacing (3 cm from left, 2 cm from the top, bottom 2 cm, 1.5 cm on the right, paper size 210 x 297 mm) Microsoft Word program, in Times New Roman font, 14 kegel size. The name of the subject is in capital letters is typed in the middle of the paper, followed by the author's next line the name, position, and name of the educational institution.

Send the electronic version of the article in 1 copy (branch number) (author's surname) (for example, 1st branch S.Abdullayev) to the phone number + 99891-571-27-77 by Telegram application until 20.04.2021 will be asked. Late or unsubscribed articles will not be included in the conference program or collection. The authors are responsible for the content of the thesis and the reliability of the statistics. Scientific articles that meet all the requirements will be included in the collection and published. Materials that are not submitted within the specified period and have not passed the examination will not be included in the package and will not be returned to the author.

The publication costs of the collection are set at 15,000 (fifteen thousand) soums per page of theses.

Address: Urgench city, H.Olimjon street 14, Urgench State University, Faculty of Physical Culture.

Contact phone: + 99891-571-27-77 Salaev Tokhir
+ 99894-230-95-55 Jammatov Jasur