

All infrastructures included in the structure of Urgench State University: including the library, information resource centers, canteen, hostel, sports complexes, as well as access and use of classes are the same for students regardless of gender, nationality, religion, and race and immigration status is determined.

The management of Urgench State University guarantees equal opportunities for students and protects their rights.

