

Employees of the information resource center of Urgench state university

In addition to providing services to professors, teachers and students, there are local branches of the university library in densely populated areas of the city of Urgench.

There are 18,972 pieces of literature in the branch of the library located in Urgench city 3 - 15 houses and 21 houses. More than 1,800 residents use this library

The majority of the population is young people.

3/1 part of the literature is fiction, newspapers, magazines, children's literature.

The neighborhood library located on Pahlavon Mahmud Street serves about 500 residents from 21,579 pieces of literature.

Workers make up the majority of the population in this neighborhood.

1 employee serves the public in the library from 9:00 to 17:00.

The total daily traffic is 100-150 readers

